59. Very interesting display of war horses
60. Very interesting exhibition thank you for all the hard work put in
61. Very interesting.
62. Very much appreciated
63. Very well done!
64. Well displayed
65. Well done
66. Well done
67. Well done
68. Well put together exhibition. I really enjoyed finding out about a subject that I knew so little
69. Well worth a visit
70. What a thought provoking exhibition, so well put together and researched and so sad
71. What a wonderful exhibition
72. What a wonderful exhibition
73. Wonderful display
74. Wonderful display
75. Wonderful exhibition
76. Wonderful exhibits and information
77. Wonderful moving exhibition
78. Wonderfully researched and presented
79. YR 6 and teachers really appreciated the presentation pitched beautifully for us

Reflections

1. A very moving exhibition
2. An aspect of war that one never thinks about – until such an exhibition
3. Eye opener
4. Fascinating to see the romantic / heroic artwork and compare it to the stark reality of the photographs
5. Heart breaking
6. How fitting that these animals have been remembered so well
7. I never realised how many horses were involved
8. I was shocked by the huge numbers of animals involved in the war and their demise
9. I'd never really thought about the use of horses in WW1 before. Lots to think about
10. Just struck by the incredible number of animals involved- obvious when you think about it
11. Learned a lot more than I'd realised
12. Lots of interesting facts that bring to life the story of the horse in WW1
13. Memories of my grandfather who went through WW1 on his beloved horse with Leics. Yeomanry
14. Moving
15. Moving and thought provoking
16. Poignant
17. Reminds me of my history teacher who was on the Somme in 1916
18. Shocked at the demise of many animals, many survived the war to be killed for food
19. So much suffering of human beings and faithful animal friends
20. so sad to know how so many lovely horses had to meet a terrifying death
21. Some very sad stories
22. Somehow the fate of the horses makes the war seem even more terrible because they were completely innocent and helpless
23. Thank you for breathing life into the dead – those who sacrificed for us
24. The numbers are staggering and the stories harrowing
25. Thought provoking display yet again reminding us of the tremendous sacrifices made by humans and animals
26. Very emotive at times
27. Very touching and moving stories
28. What a good exhibition, very informative but also very moving

Suggestions

1. A great display but there is so much to take in so need to revisit
2. Needs several visits!
3. I think you need to see this exhibition several times to fully appreciate its “forgotten heroes”
4. Too much information to take in at once, need to pop back
5. Can you suggest that Melton might like to lend more of their exhibitions?
6. It needs to be kept for future use
7. It should be displayed elsewhere
8. The exhibition should tour the villages
9. Look forward to the glow worm exhibition (reference to the use of glow worms in the First World War!)

Feedback from Children on Luggage Labels

This exhibition is amazing

This exhibition is AMAZING

This was a very good expardition because it helps you remember the men and the horses that dies in the war

I liked looking at the prints to find out what happened and looking at the list of people was very interesting.

This was a very nice expedition as I love horses.

I enjoyed the pictures and drawings
