1106	WHITE	In memoriam of Thomas White D.D. Bishop of Peterborough 1685-1690 Born at Addington, Kent 1628 Rector of All Hallows the Great London 1666 Rector of Bottesford 1679-1685 Chaplain to Princess (later Queen) Anne on her marriage to George Prince of Denmark Archdeacon of Nottingham 1683 On May 4 1688 James II issued the order for all ministers to read, his second "Declaration of indulgence" in their churches. Bishop White was one of seven bishops who were committed to the Tower of London for petitioning against the order, but on June 9th they were acquitted by a court of the Kings Bench. He died the 30th May 1698 and is buried in St Georges Vault in the precinct of St Pauls Cathedral London. In his will gave to the parish of Bott'd £240 for land and that £10 annually should be distributed to twenty poor parishioners above forty years of age who, on 14th Dec, should repeat the Lords Prayer, Apostles Creed, and Ten Commandments without missing out changing a word.
