1106	WHITE	In memoriam of Thomas White D.D.  Bishop of Peterborough 1685-1690  Born at Addington, Kent 1628  Rector of All Hallows the Great London 1666  Rector of Bottesford 1679-1685  Chaplain to Princess (later Queen) Anne on her  marriage to George Prince of Denmark  Archdeacon of Nottingham 1683  On May 4 1688 James II issued the order for all  ministers to read, his second "Declaration of  indulgence" in their churches.  Bishop White was one of seven bishops who  were committed to the Tower of London for  petitioning against the order, but on June 9th  they were acquitted by a court of the Kings  Bench.  He died the 30th May 1698 and is buried in St  Georges Vault in the precinct of St Pauls  Cathedral London.  In his will gave to the parish of Bott'd £240 for  land and that £10 annually should be distributed  to twenty poor parishioners above forty  years of age who, on 14th Dec, should repeat  the Lords Prayer, Apostles Creed, and Ten  Commandments without missing out changing  a word.
